

Survivor Safety and Securing Democratic Futures Fund Preview of Proposal Questions

As part of the proposal you will be asked to address the following in your narrative:

- Please summarize your core work on ending violence against queer, trans, and/or cis women and girls of color, Indigenous women and girls, and/or im/migrant women and girls.
- Describe how this program/project addresses issues of safety for your community/ies, including first responders/workers/survivors?
- What do you anticipate as the next challenge your community/ies will face due to COVID-19 and its collateral economic, safety, and other consequences and/or the state response to protests?
- Describe how the “triple pandemic” of COVID-19, racism, and economic insecurity has affected your approach to organizing in your community.
- Describe the positions of leadership/governance in your organization.
- Describe a bit about your organization’s efforts to create a safe and dignified workplace grounded in gender, racial and economic justice.
